

MUTUAL NON-DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

Between Brightline Analytics and Counterparty · Effective Mar 3, 2026

1. Definition of Confidential Information

"Confidential Information" means any non-public information disclosed by one party to the other, whether oral, written, or electronic, that is designated confidential or would reasonably be understood to be confidential.

2. Obligations

The receiving party shall not disclose Confidential Information to any third party and shall use it solely for the purpose of evaluating a potential business relationship between the parties.

3. Term

The obligations of confidentiality shall survive indefinitely with respect to trade secrets, and for a period of five (5) years from the date of disclosure with respect to all other Confidential Information.

4. Non-Solicitation

For a period of two (2) years following the termination of discussions, neither party shall solicit for employment any employee of the other party with whom it had contact during the course of discussions.

5. Return of Materials

Upon written request, the receiving party shall promptly return or destroy all Confidential Information and certify such destruction in writing.

6. No License

Nothing in this Agreement grants any license or right to any intellectual property of the disclosing party except as expressly set forth herein.

7. Remedies

The parties agree that monetary damages may be inadequate and that the disclosing party shall be entitled to seek injunctive relief for any breach.
