

PROFESSIONAL CONSULTING AGREEMENT

Between Meridian Advisory Group ("Consultant") and Customer · Effective Apr 10, 2026

1. Scope of Services

Consultant shall provide the advisory services described in each mutually agreed Statement of Work. Changes to scope require written agreement of both parties.

2. Compensation

Customer shall pay Consultant the fees specified in the applicable SOW. Invoices are due net thirty (30) days. Either party may dispute an invoice in good faith within fifteen (15) days.

3. Term and Termination

This Agreement continues until completion of services. Either party may terminate for convenience upon thirty (30) days written notice, with Customer responsible only for services rendered through the termination date.

4. Limitation of Liability

Each party's aggregate liability shall not exceed the fees paid under the applicable SOW in the preceding twelve (12) months. Neither party is liable for indirect or consequential damages.

5. Intellectual Property

Work product created specifically for Customer under an SOW shall be owned by Customer upon full payment. Consultant retains ownership of pre-existing materials and general methodologies.

6. Confidentiality

Each party shall keep the other's Confidential Information confidential for three (3) years following disclosure, using no less than reasonable care.

7. Governing Law

This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State of New York.